PERSONAL SUMMARY

An experienced Engineer who is committed to pushing the boundaries of innovation, redefining the benchmark for excellence and setting the standards for others to follow. Maxine wants to use her engineering skills to tackle real-world problems and to make a real difference in the lives of people everywhere. She has a reputation for coming up with solutions rather than problems, and a track record of being hardworking, inquisitive, and innovative. Her ambition is to become the go-to engineering person in her company and she looks forward to the day when colleagues and clients will ask for her by name when they have a problem. Right now she wants to join a company that encourages its teams to come together and experiment with new concepts, research new approaches and test out new technologies.
